Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles June 29, 2014

Through all the earth their voice resounds, and to the ends of the world, their message.

— Psalm 19:5

Reflecting on God's Word

In Christian iconography, Saints Peter and Paul are almost always depicted together, rather like twins. That may seem odd because they probably looked nothing alike and they had very different personalities and temperaments. Peter worked largely with Jewish Christians and Paul with Gentile Christians. Peter has been connected to preserving the tradition and Paul is remembered for welcoming the freedom of the Spirit. However, both were committed to keeping all the members of Christ's Body united in faith and love. Their faith in Christ, love for the church, and zeal for fostering the unity of the Christian community bind Peter and Paul together as no superficial resemblance could.

There is a lesson here for today's Church. We don't all agree about how much to stick to tradition and how much to allow the Spirit to guide the Church onto new paths. Yet both are necessary for continuing Jesus Christ's mission on earth. And Peter and Paul show us that remaining united in love as the one Body of Christ is more important than allowing differences of interpretation to divide us from one another.

—Virginia Stillwell

Living God's Word

We believe that the fraternal love, faith, and work of these saints who died for Christ's church will not be in vain. The God who was faithful to them will be faithful to the church they loved, and preserve the faith and unity they worked so tirelessly to maintain.

Religious Liberty Is More Than Freedom of Worship

Religious liberty is not only about our ability to go to Mass on Sunday or pray the Rosary at home. It is about whether we can make our contribution to the common good of all Americans. Can we do the good works our faith calls us to do, without having to compromise that very same faith? Without religious liberty properly understood, all Americans suffer, deprived of the essential contribution in education, health care, feeding the hungry, civil rights, and social services that religious Americans make every day, both here at home and overseas.

What is at stake is whether America will continue to have a free, creative, and robust civil society—or whether the state alone will determine who gets to contribute to the common good, and how they get to do it. Religious believers are part of American civil society, which includes neighbors helping each other, community associations, fraternal service clubs, sports leagues, and youth groups. All these Americans make their contribution to our common life, and they do not need the permission of the government to do so. Restrictions on religious liberty are an attack on civil society and the American genius for voluntary associations.

The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America issued a statement about the administration's contraception and sterilization mandate that captured exactly the danger that we face:

Most troubling, is the Administration's underlying rationale for its decision, which appears to be a view that if a religious entity is not insular, but engaged with broader society, it loses its "religious" character and liberties. Many faiths firmly believe in being open to and engaged with broader society and fellow citizens of other faiths. The Administration's ruling makes the price of such an outward approach the violation of an organization's religious principles. This is deeply disappointing.

This is not a Catholic issue. This is not a Jewish issue. This is not an Orthodox, Mormon, or Muslim issue. It is an American issue.

To all our fellow Catholics, we urge an intensification of your prayers and fasting for a new birth of freedom in our beloved country. We invite you to join us in an urgent prayer for religious liberty.

Almighty God, Father of all nations, For freedom you have set us free in Christ Jesus (Gal 5:1). We praise and bless you for the gift of religious liberty, the foundation of human rights, justice, and the common good. Grant to our leaders the wisdom to protect and promote our liberties; By your grace may we have the courage to defend them, for ourselves and for all those who live in this blessed land We ask this through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, our patroness, and in the name of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, with whom you live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Improving Our Parish Grounds - CAULKING THE WINDOWS -

THANK YOU...

Whether it is summer or winter, the windows in our homes should always be air tight. In this way we save our money. The Church is our common home - the house of God. In order to keep this house of God in good condition, we also contribute our money as an offering . In recent weeks, some windows of the church from the south - west has been sealed by the placement of new caulking. Once again, the work was done gratuitously by our parishioner, Mr. Krzysztof Sołtyszewski along with his crew. We would like to give words of heartfelt thanks to Mr. Sołtyszewski for his works for our church.

Niezależnie od tego czy jest lato czy zima, okna w naszych domach powinny być zawsze szczelne. W ten sposób oszczędzamy nasze pieniądze. Kościół jest naszym wspólnym domem - domem Bożym. Aby utrzymać ten dom Boży w dobrej kondycji, my także ofiarujemy na to nasze pieniądze. W ostatnich tygodniach część okien kościelnych od strony południowo - zachodniej zostało uszczelnione przez położenie nowego kokingu. Po raz kolejny prace te wykonał bezinteresownie nasz parafianin Pan Krzysztof Sołtyszewski ze swoją ekipą. Składamy za to słowa serdecznego podziękowania.

Love

One of the things I have learned as a parent is this: when a family member is going through a rough time and I don't know what to do, I just need to love him or her through it. That's become a kind of mantra for my wife and me because it works. When we come to the end of our rope and don't know what the "right" thing to do is, we'll say, "We can love her through it." Inviting love into the equation is to invite God into the mix. Bringing our uncertainty and worry into the light of Christ allows us to focus less on the problem and more on the person. God is love, and those who abide in love, abide in God. That is my wish for you and your family. —Tom McGrath

Miłość

Jedną z rzeczy, której nauczyłem się będąc rodzicem jest to, że kiedy ktoś z rodziny przechodzi trudny okres w życiu i nie wiem, co mam robić, powinienem po prostu kochać ją lub jego mocniej przez cały ten czas. Przekonanie to stało się rodzajem mantry dla mnie i dla mojej żony, ponieważ jego zastosowanie jest skuteczne. Kiedy dochodzimy do kresu wytrzymałości i wciąż nie wiemy, co jest tą „prawidłową rzeczą” do zrobienia, mówimy: „Możemy kochać mocniej w tym trudnym czasie”. Zaproszenie miłości, aby wprowadzić równowagę, jest zaproszeniem miłości to rozwiązania konkretnego zagmatwania. Przynoszenie naszych niepewności i trosk do światła Chrystusa, pozwala nam mniej koncentrować się na problemie, a więcej na osobie. Bóg jest miłością i ci, którzy trwają w miłości, trwają w Bogu. To jest moje pragnienie dla ciebie i twojej rodziny. —Tom McGrath
