Pastor's Notes

Spiritual Reflection

Normally, we go along and get along. We are fairly sure we know what matters. When push comes to shove, we think we would act on our values. Today, Jesus thinks about his disciples and how they will go on—on their own, but in his presence.

The first reading is from the prophet Malachi. The writer remains anonymous. Malachi is a Hebrew word that means “my messenger.” The messenger of God is clearly upset with the practices and loose interpretation of worship and law that exist in Israel after the exile. This last of the prophetic books was written before the much-needed reforms that eventually came about under the leadership of Ezra and Nehemiah. Today’s brief reading looks to that time and promises the advent of God, who is described as a healing, warming, and bright sun of justice.

However, we cannot just wait around for the day of this sun of justice. Not according to Paul. The notion of the Son of Man’s coming in glory was strong in the earliest days of the Church. Some firmly believed and eagerly awaited this great and happy day of Christ’s triumph. Apparently, some were tempted to bide their time. This kind of idling would not do. In our second reading, the Thessalonians are cautioned not to meddle in the affairs of others. They are strongly urged to engage in quiet and fruitful work.

The reading today from Luke’s Gospel also deals with the problem of the end time and its relationship to the mean time. Luke’s community also anticipated the imminent return of Christ. This Gospel deals with people’s expectation of the end times, as do the Gospels of Mark and Matthew. However, Luke’s account differs markedly; it offers a more mature view. Luke changes the context and connections of the earlier Gospels. He places Jesus in the Temple, whereas Matthew and Mark have Jesus leaving the area. While the other two synoptics connect the destruction of the Temple with the end times, Luke disconnects these two events. Luke does not see this destruction as a sign of the future. It is a present reality, albeit a tragic one.

In the story we read today, the apostles speak of the Temple in all its glory. However, Jesus addresses other concerns. The description of calamities is always scary, but Jesus lists them anyway. He knows well enough how we can bring about our own destruction through war and famine. He knows about natural disasters. And he does not see these as signals of the beginning of the end.

We can imagine Jesus and his disciples lingering in the huge and beautiful Temple, this durable place that took fifty years to build. This Temple, says Jesus, can tumble down. The sun can be merciless and the sky bone dry. The earth can open. This can all happen.

But there are bigger concerns than these. His disciples can expect to be roughly treated because they have followed him. They may even be betrayed by friends and family. Their own personal lives can be stretched to the breaking point. When this happens, as it surely will, they need not rehearse what they will say, for he will be their wisdom and strength. In patient endurance they shall save their very lives. That is the extreme situation Jesus put before them. And the solution and their salvation lie in complete dependence on his presence with them.

POTRZEBA WYTRWAŁOŚCI

Jezus ukazuje nam dziś swoje widzenie historii świata po Jego odejściu. Zapowiedź zburzenia świątyni Jerozolimskiej jest jakby przygrywką do dalszych wydarzeń. Dopóki stoi świątynia, jest ona domem Ojca, domem modlitwy, który musi być utrzymywany w należytej czystości. Pan Jezus nie jest przywiązany do kamiennych świątyń, choćby to były wspaniałe katedry, cudowne barokowe budowle. Dla Niego ważna jest „Świątynia ciała”, którą będzie Kościół. O losach tej świątyni Jezus przepowiada trzy rzeczy.

„Wielu bowiem przyjdzie pod moim imieniem - nie chodźcie za nimi.” Święty Paweł mówił o nieuniknionych schizmach, które przychodzą pod imieniem Jezusa. Ale wtedy Pan Jezus daje nam stanowczą radę: „Nie chodźcie za nimi”.

Następnie mamy przepowiednie o tym, że powstanie „naród przeciw narodowi i królestwo przeciw królestwu”. Jednak chrześcijanin wie, że koniec świata i życia doczesnego nie oznacza wcale zagłady świata i niszczenia życia, ale koniec złego świata, a początek świata Bożego, które obiecał Bóg wszystkim tym, którzy Go przyjęli.

Dlatego prześladowania nie będą jedynie przejściowym epizodem, lecz „sposobem istnienia” Kościoła Chrystusowego i poszczególnych chrześcijan. Pan Jezus mówi wyraźnie w tej sprawie. Prześladowania dotyczą „was”, tzn. obecnych w danym momencie przedstawicieli Kościoła, a zatem i całego Kościoła. Jako miejsca, gdzie chrześcijanie będą musieli dawać świadectwo, wskazuje Jezus synagogo i pogańskie trybunały.

Aresztowania, więzienie, zdrada ze strony najbliższych i powszechna nienawiść - oto, co zapowiada Jezus bez żadnych ogródek swoim wyznawcom.

„Z powodu mojego imienia będziecie w nienawiści u wszystkich. Ale włos z głowy wam nie spadnie. Przez swoją wytrwałość ocalicie wasze życie” (Łk. 21, 17-19).

Oto słowa otuchy, trzeba wytrwać przy Panu, bez względu na to, co się stanie. Trzeba dochować wierności, bez względu na to, ile to będzie kosztowało. Niczyja nienawiść, niczyja ręka nie może nam wydrzeć Boga. A wobec tych, którzy wytrwają do końca, Pan Jezus mówi: „Dla was czczących moje imię, wejdzie słońce sprawiedliwości”. Od chrześcijanina wymaga się zatem zaangażowania w Kościele i w świecie - wówczas, patrząc z punktu widzenia Opatrzności Bożej - „włos z głowy mu nie spadnie”.

Who is a Parishioner?

There are many people who come to the rectory asking for a baptism or marriage or to sign a letter saying he or she is a parishioner. When this happens, our parish secretary check if they are considered registered, and many times, they are not considered registered. So what makes a person a parishioner?

You are not a parishioner because your parents go here (unless you are still in school). You are not a parishioner because you went to school here. You are not a parishioner just because you come to Mass here!

Being a parishioner should be an easy process. You simply have to come to the rectory and fill out a paper. You know you are a parishioner when envelopes are sent to you. It's that easy! No fee; no ID cards are required!

Being a parishioner means that you are committed and invested in this parish. It means that you commit to keeping the parish vibrant, which means investment of your time, talents, and treasures to the parish. The parish would not be the same without our parishioners who make a difference and form the parish. Thank you for your dedication and devotion!

LADIES AUXILIARY KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWS

Blood donors of all types are needed everyday... to assist critically ill patients, accident victims, people needing surgery and those patients suffering chronic diseases, such as cancer and leukemia. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus, Mater Christi Council #14284, is hosting a Community Blood Drive on Sunday, November 14, at St. Ferdinand Church, 5900 W. Barry, on the lower level in McManus Hall from 8:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. Please be generous and share life!

Blood donors must be at least 16 years old (with a parental consent form) or older, weigh 110 pounds, and be in general good health. There is no upper age limit and most medications are accepted. Please make sure to have a good breakfast or lunch prior to donating and bring identification with you. Only 35 minutes of your time can help save up to 3 lives!

All donors will find out what their blood type is, receive a free cholesterol screening, blood pressure reasing and iton level screening. Giving blood will not only help save another person's life, but possibly yours. When you give blood, it is regenerating new red blood cells in your body. Think of it as an oil change for your body!

100% of the blood collected this day will be going to the hospitals in the community. Several hospitals have a shortage of blood, especially blood types O+, O-, A+ and B+. But, every blood type is necessary to sustain a life. We welcome everyone!

If you would like to schedule appointment, please contact Sabina Schleiss at (847) 682-8398 or email at sschleiss@itxm.org.

Appointments preferred.
Walk-ins are most definitely welcome!

CAPITAL RENOVATION COLLECTION

I want to express my thanks to all who contribute to our Capital Improvements Collection for their generous and consistent donations. We are asked to contribute to so many worthy projects, but these funds are earmarked solely for our own parish. We budget for regular maintenance, but these funds are used for renovations and improvements. We have been given the gift of beautiful parish property and buildings and it is our responsibility to restore and improve them for generations to come!

The donations reported in today's bulletin are from November's Capital Improvement Collection.
