Fr. Maciej's Reflections

There is a more or less realized fear in each one of us to allow others to truly get to know us. Perhaps it is an ordinary and extraordinary sense of shame at the same time? One thing is certain, we do not have to hide anything from Jesus. He knows us all by name, He knows perfectly well what we are capable of. Jesus, who is the only Good Shepherd, can give us eternal life. He is our only hope. Our true safety lies in communion with Him and in obedience to His word.

Lord, we thank You, because You are our shepherd. We know that we shall not want. You make us lie down in green pastures. You lead us besides still waters, where we can rest and restore our lives. You do so for the sake of your name (see Ps 23).

Blessings,

Fr. Matthias Galle - your Pastor

Refleksje Ks. Macieja

Jest w każdym z nas jakiś mniej lub bardziej uświadomiony lęk przed tym, żeby dać się do końca poznać. Może jest to zwyczajne i nadzwyczajne jednocześnie poczucie wstydu? Jedno jest pewne, przed Jezusem nie musimy nic ukrywać. On nas wszystkich zna po imieniu, wie doskonale, na co nas stać. Jezus, który jest jedynym Dobrym Pasterzem może nam dać życie wieczne. On jest naszą jedyną nadzieją. W jedności z Nim i w posłuszeństwie Jego słowu jest nasze prawdziwe bezpieczeństwo.

Panie, dziękujemy Ci, bo Ty jesteś naszym pasterzem. Wiemy, że niczego nam nie braknie. Ty pozwalasz nam leżeć na zielonych pastwiskach. Ty prowadzisz nas nad wody, gdzie możemy odpocząć, przywracasz nam życie. Czynisz to przez wzgląd na swoje imię (por. Ps 23).

Błogosławie,

Ks. Maciej Galle – wasz Proboszcz

Mother's Day

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ, In the Gospels, Jesus teaches us to be a living expression of God's kindness, showing the light of God's goodness and mercy to all of our brothers and sisters, but especially to the poor, the vulnerable, and those facing challenging circumstances. Each year on Mother's Day, Catholic Charities invites us to be a living expression of God's goodness through our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. With our support, Catholic Charities carries out the important work of the Church to help the poor and vulnerable in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

People often come to Catholic Charities at the most difficult times of their lives—hungry, afraid, hurting, alone, homeless, helpless, hopeless. Catholic Charities cares for people at these desperate times, helping them rebuild their lives and restoring hope for the future.

Catholic Charities provides a broad range of services to people of all ages and at every stage of life, regardless of religion or background. Whether it's helping young mothers with pregnancy and parenting services; offering educational and support programs for at-risk children and teens; counseling those facing addiction, mental illness or grief; delivering emergency assistance to families coping with homelessness and hunger; or providing affordable housing and a variety of in-home services for seniors. Catholic Charities brings Christ's love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

We each have an important role to play in the Church's sacred mission to care for those in need. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the second collection on Mother's Day, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate. or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Dzień Matki

Drogie Siostry i drodzy Bracia w Chrystusie, W Ewangelii Jezus uczy nas, abyśmy byli żywym świadectwem Bożej łaskawości, abyśmy ukazywali światło Bożej dobroci i miłosierdzia wszystkim naszym braciom i siostram, a szczególnie ubogim, bezbronnym i tym, którzy borykają się z trudnymi sytuacjami życiowymi. Każdego roku w Dniu Matki charytatywna organizacja Catholic Charities zaprasza nas do bycia żywym świadectwem Bożej dobroci i do złożenia daru podczas kolekty na rzecz Catholic Charities z okazji Dnia Matki. Dzięki naszemu wsparciu katolicka organizacja charytatywna Catholic Charities wykonuje ważną pracę Kościoła, pomaga ubogim i bezbronnym w Archidiecezji Chicago.

Ludzie często przychodzą do katolickich organizacji charytatywnych w najtrudniejszych momentach swego życia - głodni, załękni, cierpiący, samotni, bezdomni, bezradni, bez nadziei. Katolickie organizacje charytatywne dbają o ludzi w tych rozpaczliwych momentach, pomagają im odbudować życie i przywracają nadzieję na przyszłość. Katolicka organizacja charytatywna Catholic Charities zapewnia szeroki zakres usług osobom w każdym wieku i na każdym etapie życia, niezależnie od ich religii czy pochodzenia. Bez względu na to, czy pomaga młodym matkom oczekującym potomstwa, rodzicom, oferuje programy edukacyjne, czy też wspiera zagrożone dzieci i nastolatki, doradza osobom borykającym się z nałogami, chorobami psychicznymi, czy osobom pogrążonym w żałobie, czy udziela pomocy rodzinom, które w nagłych wypadkach zmagają się z bezdomnością i głodem, czy też zapewnia tanie mieszkanie i pełni różnorodne usługi domowe dla seniorów, katolicka organizacja charytatywna Catholic Charities niesie miłość i miłosierdzie ludziom i miejscom, które najbardziej tego potrzebują.

Każdy z nas ma ważną rolę do spełnienia w świętej misji Kościoła, jaką jest udzielanie pomocy potrzebującym. Proszę, abyście przyjęli moje wyrazy szczerzej wdzięczności za pomoc udzieloną w przeszłości na rzecz kolekty Catholic Charities z okazji Dnia Matki. Proszę również, abyście rozważyli możliwość złożenia hojnej ofiary, zgodnie ze swoimi możliwościami finansowymi, także w bieżącym roku. Ofiary mogą być złożone podczas drugiej kolekty w Dniu Matki. Możecie również składać je na stronie internetowej: www.catholiccharities.net/donate lub przesłać pocztą pod adres: Catholic Charities 721 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, IL 60654. Niech Bóg błogosławi Wam i tym, których szczególnie kochacie w Dniu Matki i zawsze. Z wszelkimi dobrymi życzeniami pozostaję.

Szczerze oddany Wam w Chrystusie,

Arcybiskup Chicago

World Day of Prayer for Vocations—May 12, 2019 | Message from Pope Francis

The courage to take a risk for God's promise

Dear Brothers and Sisters, after the lively and fruitful experience of the Synod devoted to young people last October, we recently celebrated the Thirty-fourth World Youth Day in Panama City. These two great events allowed the Church to be attentive both to the voice of the Spirit and to the life of young men and women, their questions and concerns, their problems and their hopes. Building on what I shared with the young people in Panama, I would like to reflect, on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, on how the Lord's call makes us bearers of a promise and, at the same time, asks of us the courage to take a risk, with him and for him. I will do this by reflecting briefly with you on these two aspects – promise and risk – as they appear in the Gospel account of the calling of the first disciples by the sea of Galilee (Mk 1:16-20).

As with every call, the Gospel speaks of an encounter. Jesus walks by, sees those fishermen, and walks up to them... The same thing happened when we met the person we wanted to marry, or when we first felt the attraction of a life of consecration: we were surprised by an encounter, and at that moment we glimpsed the promise of a joy capable of bringing fulfilment to our lives. That day, by the sea of Galilee, Jesus drew near to those fishermen, breaking through the “paralysis of routine” (Homily for the XXII World Day for Consecrated Life, 2 February 2018). And he immediately made them a promise: “I will make you fishers of men” (Mk 1:17).

The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a “cage” or a burden to be borne. On the contrary, it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking. He opens before our eyes the horizon of a greater sea and an abundant catch.

God in fact desires that our lives not become banal and predictable, imprisoned by daily routine, or unresponsive before decisions that could give it meaning. The Lord does not want us to live from day to day, thinking that nothing is worth fighting for, slowly losing our desire to set out on new and exciting paths. If at times he makes us experience a “miraculous catch”, it is because he wants us to discover that each of us is called – in a variety of ways – to something grand, and that our lives should not grow entangled in the nets of an ennui that dulls the heart. Every vocation is a summons not to stand on the shore, nets in hand, but to follow Jesus on the path he has marked out for us, for our own happiness and for the good of those around us...

I think primarily of the call to the Christian life which all of us received at Baptism. It teaches us that our life is not a fluke but rather a gift: that of being God's beloved children, gathered in the great family of the Church. It is precisely in the ecclesial community that the Christian life is born and develops, especially through the liturgy. The liturgy introduces us to God's word and the grace of the sacraments; from an early age, we are taught the art of prayer and fraternal sharing. In the end, the Church is our mother because she brings us to new life and leads us to Christ. So we must love her, even when we see her face marred by human frailty and sin, and we must help to make her ever more beautiful and radiant, so that she can bear witness to God's love in the world.

The Christian life thus finds expression in those decisions that, while giving a precise direction to our personal journey, also contribute to the growth of God's kingdom in our world. I think of the decision to marry in Christ and to form a family, as well as all those other vocations associated with work and professional life, with the commitment to charity and solidarity, with social and political responsibilities, and so forth. These vocations make us bearers of a promise of goodness, love and justice, not only for ourselves but also for our societies and cultures, which need courageous Christians and authentic witnesses of the kingdom of God.

In encountering the Lord, some may feel the attraction of a call to the consecrated life or to the ordained priesthood. It is a discovery that can excite and at the same time frighten us, since we feel called to become “fishers of men” in the barque of the Church by giving totally of ourselves in commitment to faithful service of the Gospel and our brothers and sisters. Such a decision carries the risk of leaving everything behind to follow the Lord, to devote ourselves completely to him, and to share in his work. Many kinds of interior resistance can stand in the way of making this decision, especially in highly secularized contexts where there no longer seems to be a place for God and for the Gospel. Places where it is easy to grow discouraged and fall into the “weariness of hope...”

Dear friends, it is not always easy to discern our vocation and to steer our life in the right direction. For this reason, there needs to be a renewed commitment on the part of the whole Church – priests, religious, pastoral workers and educators – to provide young people in particular with opportunities for listening and discernment. There is a need for a youth ministry and a vocational promotion that can open the way to discovering God's plan, above all through prayer, meditation on God's word, eucharistic adoration and spiritual accompaniment.

As was made clear several times during the World Youth Day in Panama, we should always look to Mary. Also in the story of this young woman, vocation was both a promise and a risk. Her mission was not easy, yet she did not allow fear to prevail. “It was the ‘yes’ of someone prepared to be committed, someone willing to take a risk, ready to stake everything she had, with no more security than the certainty of knowing that she was the bearer of a promise. I ask each one of you: Do you see yourselves as bearers of a promise? What promise do I bear within my heart to take forward? Mary's would undoubtedly be a difficult mission, but the challenges that lay ahead were no reason to say ‘no’. Things would get complicated, of course, but not in the same way as happens when cowardice paralyzes us because things are not clear or sure in advance.”

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us join in prayer and ask the Lord to help us discover his plan of love for our lives, and to grant us the courage to walk in the path that, from the beginning, he has chosen for each of us.

Francis

 Remember to always stay close to Jesus by receiving the Eucharist as often as you can!

The last class for Religious Education was on April 27th. We concluded the Catechetical Year with a Holy Mass, thanking God for all the blessings that we have received. We have had a very good year for the new Young Adults Program that started in our parish preparing youth for confirmation. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the parents and the children for their cooperation during this past school year.

Religious Education

I would like to thank the following catechists: Antoinette Sanders, who celebrated 30 years of service as a catechist, Edith Szorc, Magdalena Kleszcz, Dominika Ziobro, Magaly Rivera, Elzbieta Molek, Maria Duffy, Michelle Adamowski, Charles Harmata, Anna Babbo, Suzanne Moritz, and Rick Hernandez, for their dedication during the past year. We have a truly excellent group of people who have volunteered to give up their time to prepare for and come to class every week to share their faith and the Gospel!

I would also like to thank our Pastor, Father Maciej, Father Daniel and all the people on the staff of St. Priscilla Parish. They are always willing to help us in any way they can. Special thanks to Fr. Maciej for making religious education more accessible to our parish families by significantly lowering the tuition for the next school year.

If you did not sign up to our parish yet, please do so and receive lower tuition rates.

We hope you have a wonderful summer and we look forward to seeing you next year. I want you to know that the registration to our program for the 2019-2020 school year takes place during the first week of May and September. Remember to attend Mass and receive the sacraments during the summer months.

GOD BLESS,

Anna Harmata
 Coordinator of Religious Education
