Fr. Maciej's Reflections

The mindset and life of John the Baptist is for us an extraordinary stimulus for reflection on our experience of Advent. We are constantly experiencing bombardment by the "voices of the world": advertising, profit, success, cunning, calculation, comfort, pleasure, and political slogans. Asceticism is necessary for us, especially in our hedonistic world, with its neurotic emphasis on gaining pleasure and vibes. In order not to get lost in the world of gibberish, we have to go to the desert like John. Going there means taking a break from everyday reality, the constant chase, anxiety, gaining a distance to everyday worries and fears. To be able to give spiritual good to others, we must be God-filled, and this is not possible without silence, prayer and contemplation of God in loneliness. The Advent desert is needed to learn to live and speak in a different voice; the voice of the Gospel, mercy and love. It is needed to bear fruit worthy of conversion; that is, change thinking, mentality. First of all, convert our thoughts, that is, free them from distraction, from excessive concern for ourselves and our own interests, and direct them completely to God. We also need to learn humility. Without it, there is no authentic and deep spiritual life. Rather, it is pride, conceit, arrogance, humiliation of others, the pursuit of success on the backs of others, or false humility, complexes and unhealthy humiliation of ourselves.

Blessings,

Fr. Matthias Galle - your Pastor

Refleksje Ks. Macieja

Postawa i życie Jana Chrzciciela jest dla nas niezwykle bodźcem do refleksji nad naszym przeżywaniem Adwentu. Nieustannie doświadczamy bombardowania przez „głosy świata”: reklamy, zysku, sukcesu, sprytu, kalkulacji, komfortu, przyjemności, czy politycznych haseł. Asceza jest nam niezbędna, zwłaszcza w naszej hedonistycznej epoce, z jej neurotycznym naciskiem na zdobywanie przyjemności i wrażeń. Aby nie zagubić się w światowym bełkocie, musimy jak Jan iść się na pustynię. Pójść tam, oznacza oderwać się od codziennej rzeczywistości, zabiegania, niepokoju, nabrać dystansu do codziennych zmartwień i lęków. Aby móc dawać dobro duchowe innym trzeba być samemu napełnionym Bogiem, a nie jest to możliwe bez ciszy, modlitwy i kontemplacji Boga w samotności. Pustynia w Adwencie jest potrzebna, aby uczyć się żyć i mówić innym głosem; głosem Ewangelii, miłosierdzia i miłości. Jest potrzebna, aby wydać owoce godne nawrócenia; czyli zmienić myślenie, mentalność; przede wszystkim nawrócić myśli, czyli uwolnić je od rozproszenia, od nadmiernej troski o siebie i o własne interesy, a skierować je całkowicie ku Bogu. Jest nam potrzebna również dlatego, aby uczyć się pokory. Bez niej nie ma autentycznego i głębokiego życia duchowego. Jest raczej pycha, zarozumiałość, arogancja, poniżanie innych, dążenie do sukcesu po trupach, albo fałszywa pokora, kompleksy i niezdrowe poniżanie siebie.

Błogosławie,

Ks. Maciej Galle – wasz Proboszcz

Fri. Dec.13, 6:30PM Rectory Round Room

Exclusively this Fri. Dec 13, we invite all who were moved and inspired by the play, Saint Catherine of Siena, to see and discuss bishop Robert Barron's program: Catholicism: The Pivotal Players on St. Catherine. The mystic, wonderworker, and confidant to popes and kings, exemplified the power of a life lived in relationship with Jesus. Her love for Christ was a love that cast out all fear and transformed her into a living expression of Him. She provided an example of faith that changed the culture and left an enduring legacy that the Church still resources today. In this episode, we will see Rome, Siena, Avignon and all of the locations that played significant role in the formation and vocation of Saint Catherine which in turn formed the of the life of the church.
