Fr. Maciej's Reflections

In the context of today's Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord, it is worth noting that Jesus does not undertake His mission by marching out to the streets of the world right away. Before being baptized and starting public ministry, He goes to the desert, devoting Himself to prayer and trial. In the desert, Jesus is tempted and His mission matures when He is confronted with an evil spirit. Only then will He begin to preach and bear witness to the Father. Perhaps there is a hint in all this for us, so that our activity should not stand out in the foreground, that it should not only be superficial. Our actions should also flow from meditation, contemplation and focus on prayer. We also need or will need strength to fight the evil one.

The Baptism in Jordan that we celebrate today, is somehow a prefiguration of that "baptism of death" through which Jesus passes on the cross, and consequently becomes the basis of our own baptism. It is exactly as St. Paul wrote to the Romans, "we have been buried with Him through baptism into death" and we will also rise to a new life by the power of His resurrection. Today's Solemnity, therefore, is a direct announcement of what awaits us during Easter. Let us ask God today that we will always consciously draw from the power of our baptism in everything we do. This source of grace has left us with an irremovable seal. It tells us that we belong to Christ. Let us pray today that Christ will fill not only our prayer and our religious life, but also that He will enter our mutual relationships, awaken our consciences and strengthen our sense of responsibility for the created world, for everything that surrounds us.

Fr. Matthias Galle - your Pastor

Refleksje Ks. Macieja

W kontekście obchodzonej dzisiaj uroczystości Chrztu

Pańskiego warto zauważyć, że Jezus nie podejmuje swojej misji wychodząc z marszu na ulice świata. Zanim przyjmie chrzest i rozpocznie publiczną działalność udaje się na pustynię, oddając się tym samym modlitwie i próbie. Na pustyni Jezus jest kuszony, a Jego misja dojrzewa w konfrontacji ze złym duchem. Dopiero potem zacznie głosić i dawać świadectwo o Ojcu. Być może jest w tym wszystkim jakaś wskazówka i dla nas, żeby i nasza aktywność nie wybijała się na pierwszy plan, żeby nie była tylko powierzchowna. Nasze czyny też powinny wypływać z medytacji i skupienia na modlitwie. Też potrzebujemy lub będziemy potrzebować sił do walki ze złym duchem. Właśnie Chrzt w Jordanie, który dzisiaj wspominamy jest niejako prefiguracją owego "chrztu śmierci", przez który Jezus przechodzi na krzyżu i który konsekwentnie staje się podstawą naszego chrztu. Jest dokładnie tak, jak mówi nam św. Paweł, "przez chrzest zanurzający nas w śmierć zostaliśmy razem z Nim pogrzebani" i mocą Jego Zmartwychwstania powstaniami do nowego życia. Dzisiejsze święto zatem, zamykając okres Bożego Narodzenia, stanowi bezpośrednią zapowiedź tego, co czeka nas w okresie wielkanocnym. Prośmy dzisiaj Boga, abyśmy we wszystkim co robimy, świadomie czerpali z mocy naszego chrztu. To źródło odcisnęło w nas nieusuwalną pieczęć przynależności do Chrystusa. Módlmy się, aby Chrystus wypełniał nie tylko naszą modlitwę i nasze życie religijne, ale żeby wkroczył także w nasze wzajemne relacje, obudził nasze sumienia i umocnił w nas poczucie odpowiedzialności za stworzony świat, za wszystko co nas otacza.

The Collection for the Church in Latin America

January 26, 2020

In two weeks, our special collection will support the Church in Latin America. For many living in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers makes it difficult for people to practice the faith. Your donations fund catechesis, marriage and family life programs, and seminarian formation so people can grow closer to Christ. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection to share your faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean.
