Easter Sunday
April 4, 2010
To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him
will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.
— Acts 10:43

Dear Parishioners:

ALLELUJA! CHRIST IS RISEN!

EASTER is God's Day! EASTER marks the resurrection of Christ from the grave. EASTER proves that love can never be permanently crucified but ultimately triumphs over hate.

Let us rejoice for the Risen Lord is with us. We are not alone. Though suffering comes into our lives at different times, we are not defeated by it. For nothing can separate us from our VICTORIOUS LORD!

May the PEACE of Christ's Resurrection be with you! We will remember each of you in our Masses on Easter Sunday.

Rev. Idzi Stacherczak, Pastor

Rev. Joseph Vadakumcherry, Associate Pastor

Drodzy Parafianie,

ALELUJA!

CHRYSTUS ZMARTWYCHWSTAŁ PRAWDZIWIE!

WIELKANOC jest Świętem samego Boga. WIELKANOC oznacza Zmartwychwstanie Chrystusa z grobu. WIELKANOC dowodzi, że miłość nigdy nie może być na zawsze ukrzyżowana, albowiem w końcu tryumfuje ona nad nienawiścią.

Radujmy się, ponieważ Pan Jezus Zmartwychwstały jest razem z nami. Nie jesteśmy osamotnieni. Pomimo, że cierpienie nawiedza nas w różnych momentach naszego życia, nie jesteśmy przez nie pokonani. Nic nas nie może odłączyć od naszego CHRYSTUSA ZWYCIĘZCY.

Aby POKÓJ Chrystusa Zmartwychwstałego pozostał zawsze z Wami! W naszych Mszach św. Wielkanocnych wspomnimy każdego z Was.

Who is a Parishioner?

There are many people who come to the rectory asking for a baptism or marriage or to sign a letter saying he or she is a parishioner. When this happens, our parish secretary check if they are considered registered, and many times, they are not considered registered. So what makes a person a parishioner?

You are not a parishioner because your parents go here (unless you are still in school). You are not a parishioner because you went to school here. You are not a parishioner just because you come to Mass here!

Being a parishioner should be an easy process. You simply have to come to the rectory and fill out a paper. You know you are a parishioner when envelopes are sent to you. It's that easy! No fee; no Id cards are required!

Being a parishioner means that you are committed and invested in this parish. It means that you commit to keeping the parish vibrant, which means investment of your time, talents, and treasures to the parish. The parish would not be the same without our parishioners who make a difference and form the parish. Thank you for your dedication and devotion!

EASTER SUNDAY

FIRST READING: Acts 10:34a, 37–43
RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23
SECOND READING: Colossians 3:1–4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b–8
GOSPEL: John 20:1–9

New Life

New life abounds! Fresh signs of resurrection surround us. The work of Lent is done: hatchets are buried, fences are mended, grudges forgotten. Christ is risen! New life abounds!

Comment

Compared to the readings of the Easter Vigil, those for Easter Sunday may seem a bit anticlimactic. While the readings for the Vigil build and rise to a glorious crescendo, today's readings are more subdued, like the stillness before dawn, before the first light. In fact, the joy and excitement of the day come bursting through mainly in the responsorial psalm: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad" (Psalm 118:24).

In the first reading, Peter is preaching the fundamentals of faith in the death and resurrection of Jesus to the Roman centurion Cornelius—who observed the Jewish faith but who was not circumcised—and to his Gentile family and friends. Jesus, who "went about doing good and healing," was crucified, whom "God raised on the third day," who was seen by "witnesses … who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead" (Acts 10:38, 40–41). So much of God's generosity in Christ Jesus is crammed into so few words, much of the formula of faith from the apostolic community.

Paul's letter reminds us that we all have a part in the Resurrection. We have all died and risen with Christ. That is why the Resurrection makes an impact on our lives here and now. We're called to be people alive in Christ, people bound for glory together with him.

John's account of the Resurrection is not simply low-key. Rather, the evangelist offers a number of details that reveal a "coming to light," as it were. Mary, expecting to prepare the body of Jesus for permanent burial, finds an empty tomb. She does not understand and hurries to Peter and John with the shocking news. The two apostles come to the burial site. John remembers how the garments of death have fallen and how one is carefully rolled. The men do not know what to make of this. Experience will have to follow. Faith will follow. Light will dawn. New life will come.

Reflection

Resurrection does not mean—just cannot mean—return to everyday life. Resurrection means a breakthrough to the extraordinary life Jesus promised when he said, "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Jesus rose from the dead to make that abundantly clear. He ascended to "God's right hand" not only to show us that heaven is our home, but to ready it for our arrival. We look forward to that homecoming and recognize that Jesus himself will be our ultimate "judge." We anticipate that judgment, believing that Jesus, who knows first-hand our condition—our sufferings, temptations, joys, desires, and trials—and who came to call sinners, refused to cast the first stone, and declined to condemn, will be there to welcome us and to act as a compassionate judge. We look forward to that day as one of hope and ultimate joy, a day of mercy, not merit, a day of grace, not disgrace.

Are we ready to rise? Rise from the dead? Can we put aside anxious and tentative living and embrace life with confidence and surety? Jesus' resurrection assures us that we can, for Jesus died and rose not for himself, but for us. Easter reconciles us with creation, with ourselves, and with God. Winter is over; the dead time is past. Now is the time for living. Now is the time for embracing one another and the future with renewed humanity and unclouded hope.
