The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 14, 2009

The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.
— Psalm 116:13

Spiritual Reflection

Not so long ago, many of our Second Graders received Jesus in the Eucharist for the very first time. Most of us can remember our First Communion Day. Chances are that we asked our parents many times why we couldn't receive Communion? We needed to understand what it was all about. We needed to believe that what we received was really and truly the Body and Blood of Christ.

Our Second Graders learned about the centrality of the Eucharist from us. They've watched us carefully. Many times they have been inspired by what they have seen. Other times we might have set a better example. Receiving the Eucharist needs to be just as powerful for us today as it was when we first received it. Some Second Graders began to cry after receiving Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist. They simply could not believe how wonderful it was!

We can sometimes become disturbed by the statistics that many of us do not believe that the Eucharist truly is the Body and Blood of Christ. Some see it as just a symbol. What an impoverished belief! It might be difficult for us to understand how the Bread and Wine are truly the Body and Blood of Jesus, but that's exactly what they are. We need to pass on that sure knowledge to our children and grandchildren. We do that mostly by our own example.

We're aware that our Church tells us that we shouldn't eat or drink anything except water for at least an hour before receiving Communion. How important it is for us to remind our children of that and to set that example for them. We can easily remind everyone an hour before Mass that the eating, drinking and gum chewing should stop.

We need to help our children grow into more adult beliefs about the centrality of the Eucharist. It's best to help them dress well for Mass. If our clothes can just as easily be picnic or ball game clothes, then there's something wrong. Dressing well results in better and more reverent behavior as well. Even the items brought to Church with children can help or hinder. If they are fed throughout Mass and play with trucks and other toys, that sends a message to them and all around them. If they learn to look at the pictures of their children's Bible or another prayer book or to hold a Rosary during Mass, they'll come to see that it's something different and special that we're doing.

When it's time to come forward to receive the Eucharist, we show them what we believe. We can resist looking around at others or even walking thoughtlessly or casually. We can pay close attention to what we're doing and help them to do so as well. We can make sure we bow before we receive the Most Holy Eucharist and say "Amen" clearly when the Priest, Deacon, or Extraordinary Minister says "The Body of Christ," and "The Blood of Christ." As we approach the Priest or other minister we can help our kids receive a blessing or another greeting. We can help them make the Sign of the Cross.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is always a great opportunity for us to look at our own Mass etiquette. We become what we eat, the very Body and Blood of Christ Himself. May we celebrate with reverence and joy, that we may go forth in peace to love and serve the Lord, and teach others to do so as well. Have a good week!

Pastor's Notes

CZYŃCIE TO NA MOJĄ PAMIĄTKĘ

W dzisiejszą niedzielę Kościół przypomina nam Wieczerzę Pańską, kiedy to Chrystus po raz pierwszy wypowiedział nad chlebem wszechmocne słowa, które zwykły chleb przemieniają w „chleb życia", w Jezusowe Ciało.

W dniu dzisiejszym miliony katolików na całym świecie gromadzą się, aby uwielbić Chrystusa w Eucharystii, aby złożyć Mu „dzięki" za Jego bezgraniczną miłość, za to, że raczył z nami pozostać na tej ziemi. Słowa Chrystusa „Czyńcie to na moją pamiątkę" ponawiane są nieustannie na ołtarzach całego świata.

Dzisiejsza Ewangelia opowiada nam, że tysiące ludzi poszło za Jezusem na pustynię. Spragnieni Jego słowa i miłości zapomnieli, że potrzeba im także chleba. Widząc te zgłoniałe rzesze ludzi, Chrystus nakarmił ich w cudowny sposób. Znalazło się pięć chlebów i dwie ryby, a Jezus spojrzał w niebo i odmówiwszy błogosławieństwo, połamał i dawał uczniom, by podawali ludowi. Jedli i nasycili się wszyscy i zebrano jeszcze dwanaście koszów ułomków, które im zostały.

Ta sama sytuacja powtarza się i dzisiaj i każdego dnia, kiedy gromadzimy się wokół Chrystusa i Jego Ołtarza. Nie jesteśmy tutaj spragnieni chleba, ale potrzebujemy prawdy, miłości i życia. Chrystus daje nam tutaj cudowny chleb życia wiecznego—czyli siebie samego pod postacią chleba, byśmy nie ustali na drodze naszego pielgrzymowania do Boga.

Chrystus mówi i dziś do nas te same słowa co kiedyś: „Jeżeli nie będziecie spożywali Ciało Syna Człowieczego i nie będziecie pili Krwi Jego, nie będziecie mieli życia w sobie" (J. 6,53). Zbawiciel chciał pozostawić w naszych rękach swoją zbawczą ofiarę krzyżową, największy dowód Jego miłości; ofiarę życia i świętości. Żeby uwiecznić tę ofiarę, postanowił, że ma się ona codziennie ponawiać w cudowny sposób na wszystkich ołtarzach świata.

Bez chleba, który daje nam nasza ziemia, nie może żyć nasze ciało; bez chleba, który daje nam Niebo—czyli Chrystus, nie może żyć nasza dusza. Zatem starajmy się jak najczęściej przyjmować ten Chleb, który daje nam Życie wieczne—czyli Komunię Świętą. Święto Bożego Ciała jest wyrazem naszej wdzięczności za to, iż On chciał pozostać z nami na dole i niedolę ale także przypominieniem, że On nie chce być Bogiem malowanym, lecz ośrodkiem dyspozycyjnym. Do Niego mamy iść po radę w chwilach trudności życiowych i moralnych zawirowań, i pytać Go, jak mamy postępować? Jak żyć? Możemy mieć wówczas nadzieję, że wtedy mniej będzie zawinionych nieszczęść w naszym życiu. Chrystus czeka na nas w każdym kościele.
